The Breaknecks are stomping to the table with a brand new approach to old school rock values. Stripped down and straight ahead anthems that seek to revive a time when music was a living, breathing thing that was discovered at a dive bar. The Breaknecks music is something forged in blood, sweat and bringing people together letting the sounds become a part of your being!

Pure rock and roll, throaty bass tones, unapologetic drum styling and guitars with nothing but attitude help to form the gravelly sound that can not be found as anything but genuine. If You're looking for the heart that modern music has lost, this is where you find it ! THE BREAKNECKS!
