Intelligent, inspired music that taps into your inner free spirit & Appalachian Bluegrass Americana soul

Playing On The Planet is a globe-wandering group of musical multi-instrumentalists from the Ocoee River region of southeast Tennessee. At this mountain crossroads of Appalachia-intrigue, three state lines and varied musical genres intersect. The musicians make the most out of what they refer to as regional "schizo-graphy."

Playing On The Planet creates a stunningly dynamic acoustic sound that includes original music derived from the rich heritage of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Kentucky's bluegrass pastures, Rainbow Children gatherings, Gypsy alleys in Romania, "Urban Streetscape Sound" heard in clandestine warehouse districts. The band's attention-grabbing original music is found on network TV shows all over the planet.

Live on Stage: Playing On The Planet approaches all boundaries of the musical-appreciation scale with clever musical asides tucked in at unexpected moments. The musicians use mountain-bred instincts to bring together disparate audiences (traditionalists and newcomers) whether they arrived to a show á pied, by bike, pickup truck or a Subaru tricked out with adventure gear. Hula Hoops & dancing encouraged!
